

[Slide 1 of 11

A picture of two long, narrow wooden boards and three tires. The ends of the first board rest on the first and second tires like a bridge. The second board does the same with the second and third tires at a right angle to the first board, making an L-shaped bridge.

The text reads: "Loose parts are open-ended, moveable, and non-dictated. Because they can be used in a variety of different ways, they allow children to create their own play experiences."

Slide 2 of 11

A cartoon rope is stretched across green background.

The text reads: "This is not a rope."

Slide 3 of 11

Along the bottom of the photo is tall green grass. There is a coil of rope twisting through the grass.

The text reads: "It (the rope) is a snake slithering through tall grass."

Slide 4 of 11

A cartoon river runs through the middle of the image with green banks on either side. There is a piece of rope with a knot at the bottom hanging from the top of the image.

The text reads: "It is a swing used to get across a moat."

Slide 5 of 11

There are two large grey rocks with grass growing around them in the centre of the image.

The text reads: "These are not rocks..."

Slide 6 of 11

The same two large rocks are in the center of the image. There is a smaller rock balanced across them, creating an archway. Through the archway you can see grass.

The text reads: "It is a secret passageway to a land of faeries."

Slide 7 of 11

There is a large plate in the center of the photo with small rocks scattered across it.

The text reads: "They are a delicious plate of food."

Slide 8 of 11

There is a black cartoon tire in the middle of the photo.

The text reads: "This is not a tire."

Slide 9 of 11

Cartoon snow is across the bottom of the image. Above it is a tire turned on its side, with two blue mittens hovering over it.

The text reads: "This is a campfire that will warm us up in the winter."

Slide 10 of 11

There are two tires turned right side up rolling down a brown path. One tire is ahead of the other.

The text reads: "They are two cars in a race."

Slide 11 of 11

A picture of a small child in a blue jacket, kneeling near a black tire on its side. The child has a small shovel in one hand. The shovel is covered in dirt. There are 3 boards laying on top of the tire, end to end, so the ends are overlapping. They are covered in dirt. It looks like the child is spreading the dirt on the boards.

The text reads: "The more open-ended the environment and it's materials are, the more possibilities there are for the child to interact with their surroundings."
